Cinderella Presentation Rubric

| | 4 | 3 | 2 | 1 |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Content: Similarities | We describe several interesting ways that the stories are alike. | We describe a few ways that the stories are alike. | We describe one way that the stories are alike. | We do not describe any ways the stories are alike. |
| Content: Differences | We describe several interesting ways that the stories are different. | We describe a few ways that the stories are different. | We describe one way that the stories are different. | We do not describe any ways the stories are different. |
| Content: Conclusions | We draw reasonable conclusions from the stories that are important and relevant to us today. | We draw reasonable conclusions from the stories. | We try to draw some conclusions from the stories, but our conclusions are not very important or they do not make sense. | Our conclusions are shallow or they do not come from the stories. |
| Organization | We have an opening slide that has a catchy title and gets people interested in what we are going to say.Our closing slide says what is most important about our presentation. | We have an opening slide with a title that goes with our presentation.Our closing slide summarizes our presentation. | We have an opening slide, but it does not describe what our presentation is about.Our closing slide does not say anything general about our presentation. | Our opening slide or closing slide is missing. |
| Appearance | We use graphics mixed with text to make our presentation more interesting and to add to what we are saying. | We use graphics mixed with text in our presentation. | We use some graphics in our presentation along with text, but some of the pictures detract from what we are saying, or we have too much text on a slide. | We either have too many graphics with too little text or too much text with too few graphics. |