Evaluation Resources

Intel® Teach Essentials Course

Follow-Up Group Interview

Follow-Up Group Interview Questions

(PB) Using Project-Based Approaches in the Classroom

READ TO TEACHER BEING INTERVIEWED: The Intel® Teach Essentials Course training encourages teachers to use project-based approaches to teaching and to use inquiry learning. We are interested in learning more about project-based approaches and how useful you find them in your own teaching.

PB-1. What parts of the project-based approaches presented in the Essentials Course did you find most interesting?

OPEN ENDED RESPONSE

PB-1a. Which parts of project-based approaches are problematic or challenging to do in the classroom?

OPEN ENDED RESPONSE

PB-1b. Why do you think so?

OPEN ENDED RESPONSE

PB-2. How useful do you think project-based approaches are in your school?

OPEN ENDED RESPONSE

PB-2a. Why or why not?

OPEN ENDED RESPONSE