Dragon Assistant

Dragon Assistant is a voice recognition software that goes beyond just dictating text to your computer. Dragon really is a personal assistant and it can launch applications, search the web, play your favorite music and do many other things for you to make using your computer more intuitive. Rather than you trying to learn special voice commands, you can simply talk to Dragon naturally as you would do in chatting with other humans.